

Lottie Moon lived in America. She had dark hair, and sparkly brown eyes. She was clever and fun. Her friends and family loved her.

But sometimes Lottie tried to skip church. Even though her father had died before she was thirteen years old, Lottie gave no thought to her own life or death.

Sometimes Lottie
tried to skip church.

One day, however, Lottie went to a revival meeting. Revival meetings are where people gather together to hear about God's forgiveness. Lottie thought that the meeting might give her more ideas about how to tease her Christian friends.

However, when she was there, everything the preacher said made sense. Her conscience started to bother her and that night Lottie asked God to forgive her sins. From that day, Lottie never skipped church!

Lottie asked God to forgive her sins.

