

Thankfully, other seeds fell onto good soil. The plants grew well. And the farmer got a healthy crop. There were lots and lots of grain to make many loaves of bread. Jesus then said, 'He who has ears let him hear.'

The plants that grew in the good soil grew well, and they kept growing. Some grew better than others, but they all grew. If you are a person who truly loves God, you will learn about him more and more.

You will grow. Your life will show others what Jesus is like – that he is wonderful.

